

Australasian Pig Science Association (Inc)

APSA 2011

13th Biennial Conference

Adelaide Hilton. South Australia. Australia

27 - 30th November 2011

POST CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The APSA post-conference tour on Thursday, Dec 1 is a perfect way to unwind from the frantic pace of the scientific and social excesses of the previous days and an ideal opportunity to see some key pork industry activities and Barossa Valley scenery.

Start 8am: A luxury coach will depart from the Hilton Hotel

Stop 1: Port Wakefield to tour the recently built, state-of-the-art Primo abattoir.

Stop 2: University of Adelaide Roseworthy Campus, home of the Pork CRC, new Veterinary Science School and a key centre for pig reproduction research.

Stop 3: Observe a free range operation of Berkshire pigs

Stop 4: Visit one of the most picturesque wineries in the Barossa Valley.

Finish 8pm: Return to Adelaide

The climax of the tour will be a master class in fine food, with a Black pig focus, at one of the Barossa's finest food establishments. The master class will provide sufficient nourishment for our return.

The cost per person for the tour is $115 (incl GST).
