International APSA Travel Scholarship Award – Application Guidelines

Eligibility

To be eligible for the International APSA Travel Scholarship Award, applicants must not reside in Australia and must satisfy at least one of the following:

- Be within 10 years of graduation (undergraduate level); or
- Be within 5 years of completing Masters/PhD studies; or
- Be a current post-graduate student.

Application

Applicants must complete the online questionnaire and submit the following materials:

1. One-page paper: Applicants should prepare a high quality one-page paper based on the instructions to authors located on the Abstract/One-Page Paper Submission page of APSA's website. The one-page paper must be accepted by APSA's Editorial Committee for publication in animal - science proceedings in order for the applicant to qualify for the Award. The research should be in the area of pig science or have direct relevance or application.
2. Letter of recommendation: Applicants should submit a letter of recommendation from the faculty or professional member of the institution(s) which supported their research.
3. Signed departmental endorsement: Applicants should submit the 'Departmental Endorsement' form signed by the Chair or Head of the Department/Institute, or equivalent (template provided on APSA's website).
4. Curriculum Vitae (maximum 5 pages): Applicants should submit their CV outlining their educational background, including academic awards, presentations and publications.

Closing date

Applications must be completed online by 22nd May 2023. An acknowledgment of receipt will be sent via email. If you don't receive this email, please contact APSA's Executive Manager admin@apsa.asn.au.

Applications will be evaluated by the APSA Committee and successful applicant/s will be notified by August 2023. Successful applicant/s will be expected to prepare an oral presentation for the 2023 Biennial APSA Conference in Brisbane, Australia in accordance with the instructions for presenters.

The International APSA Travel Scholarship Award will be awarded to a maximum of two applicants and the APSA Committee reserves the right not to award a scholarship if submissions do not meet the standard expected.
